

The ultimate measure of a man is not
where he stands
in moments of comfort and
convenience,
but where he stands in times
of challenge
and controversy

Ms. Liebe Geft
Keynote Speaker
Wednesday, January 20, 2010
B123 Auditorium
3:00pm

Ms. Liebe Geft, director of the Museum of Tolerance will deliver the keynote address for the 2010 Martin Luther King Day program.

Ms. Geft has been involved in educating young people for several decades. She is a frequent public speaker, regularly moderates public debates on pressing social issues, and has often appeared on radio and television programs about poetry and children's literature. Ms. Geft has directed the Tools for Tolerance for Professionals program at the Museum of Tolerance since 1996, helping design materials and direct workshops for teachers, law-enforcement officials, and municipal employees. She was educated in Zimbabwe (Rhodesia), Israel, England, and the United States.

remember MLK
January 20, 2010